

REGULAR LECTURES

Teaching is a dynamic process and hence Institute has engaged strong team of qualified faculty members having long experience of industry & academics.

In addition, resource persons and guest speakers are also invited from the Institutions and organizations of National and International repute. Our emphasis is on the interactive mode of learning.

ASSIGNMENTS

Students are given on line and offline Assignments in order to develop their explanatory power in writing on a regular basis. Performance in these applied assignments is the part of Internal Assessment.

SEMINARS

A part from regular classroom seminars to inculcate the power of presentation among the students, Institute organizes every year a National Seminar on current topics of Socio-economic fabric of the Industrial world. Students are also encouraged to present research papers/articles in a special session dedicated to them only. The audio-visual presentation is an integral part of such seminars.

SYMPOSIUM

Symposia are also organized by the Institute to make students aware of the particular subject/topic. Students are benefited by the views of experts during the panel discussions of the symposia.

GROUP DISCUSSION

In order to ignite the creativity among the students' group discussions along with Brain-Storming sessions are organized. In such sessions, students are given a problem and asked to suggest a feasible solution with the help of a moderator.

SYNDICATES

In order to develop Team spirit syndicates are formed among the students and given an objective to be achieved by working together as a team.

SIMULATION

Simulation is a process which involves a particular set of conditions. These conditions are artificially created in order to study or experience the happenings that could exist in reality.

These techniques involve ROLEPLAYING, COMPUTER SIMULATED GAMES and the development of various simulation model.

CASE STUDY

Students are given various cases and asked to suggest various feasible solutions as per their opinion.

BUSINESS/IT GAMES

Students are encouraged to develop decision-making skills with the help of various Management Games. Special sessions are arranged for this purpose.

Core and Guest faculties organize such sessions on regular basis.

QUIZ

Written and Oral (Open & Team) quizzes are also organized for the students in order to make them aware of current affairs.

CDSANDFILMS

Institute also has a fully developed Audio-visual room fitted with LCD T.V. and LCD overhead projectors a part from other ICT aids like magnetic board etc. Students are shown these CDs and Films related to their subjects.

The session is followed by discussions in order to bring out there al message of the film or to initiate debate among students with reference to CDs.

INDUSTRIALTOUR

For exposure to practical problems faced by managers in companies and their plants, visits to reputed companies are a regular feature. Industrial tours are also organized from time to time. Participation in plant visits is mandatory.

FUN TRIPS

Fun trips are also organized to in fuse vitality, energy and to give exposure to nature and the real world.

SUMMERPROJECT/ TRAINING

Students of various courses have to undertake summer project/training in companies of repute, as part of the course curriculum.

The project report/thesis sanintensive learning exercise for students to apply particular the cortical concepts into practical situations as experienced in industrial establishments.

FIELDPROJECTS

Students of Management course are required to undertake field projects as a part of their curriculum. These field projects are guided by a faculty guide.

PRACTICALS

Practical assignments are an integral part of a Professional Course. Therefore, to explore the students, we impart technical expertise along with practical's for the proper understanding of a subject matter. Our laboratories are equipped with the latest model so equipment. However, for continuous development and updating of these types of equipment, we keep a close watch on development/changes which are taking place globally for the procurement of many advanced version of the lab. Equipment and thus to ensure students working with most updated and advanced equipments.

BIM